News Summary.

The Secretary of War has issued orders accepting the resignations of Major-General Q. A. GILL-MORE, to take effect December 5, and that of Brigadier-General George P. Este, to take effect on the 4th instant.

The order recently published honorably mustering out of service Major-General James H. Witt- not only are these States in the Union, but street. son, at present in Georgia, has been revoked by their representatives present are already the War Department.

Two important cases were about to be adjudicated by the Supreme Court of the United States. The first involves the question as to whether the President's pardon remits the sentence of for feiture of confiscated property and reinstates the owner in all his rights thereto. This case is now ing the test oath. The latter question will be presented in a few days.

The Montana Post, of October 28, says: "Last week the queen trophy of the mountains was found by DE FOE & Co., in Deadwood Gulch. This monster nugget weighed fourteen and a half may please them. pounds, avoirdupois, and measures in length nine inches; in breadth, two and a half inches, and in trains upon the same track, and a collision is thickness one and a half inch. The specimen is almost entirely free from quartz, and is worth $6500 in greenbacks."

The New Orleans Picayone states that it is a consolatory and encouraging evidence of the sympathy of our people for the unfortunate, that the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate is without legs, Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House are both on crutches. Despite these misfortunes, these gentlemen all prove very efficient, capable, and acceptable officers.

The Jackson (Mississippi) Clarion says: "On Monday last the most sweeping repudiating resolution ever presented to a deliberative assembly, was adopted by the Senate. It declares that 'the State will not, and should not, pay any debt against the State, whether on account of salaries of officors, Treasury notes, 'change bills, or otherwise originating between the 9th day of January, 1861. rnd the 16th day of October, 1861; and the Treasurer of the State is hereby directed not to pay any warrant or claim based upon any such de mand; and all receivers of public moneys are hereby forbidden to receive any such warrant or de-mand for dues to the State."

Hon. GEORGE WASHINGTON JULIAN, Says the Cincinnati Inquirer, the man who would 'hang liberally' in the South-who would put to death DAVIS, LEE, and all the other Southern leaders, is turned out. thus noticed by General Members in a card, since he couldded him. He says: "By nature cold, selfish and calculating-with a postiferous disposition to poke his nose into the business of every one who does not 'pin faith' with him, and following up his impudent interference with baneful falsehoods, it is not wonderful that he should be spurned and shupped by all who know him well. or that he should be exposed and written down as hending an executive veto if they passed it, they put the thing in the shape of a "Call for a Joint Committee of nine from the House and six from the Senate." This is to inquire into the condition selled by these grave considerations not to be, it of the South, and report as to the right of representation of the late Confederate States. Under this arrangement Tennessee will be likely to come in soon, for the reason that the President is the dispenser of patronage and from that State. GREELEY has worked like a beaver to make the Rad- course indicated, in cancus, in which the icals let down, and RAYMOND, not to be outdone, comes out to-day strong for the President's policy. There is great complaint of the vast disproportion of chairmen of the committees given to New Eng-

A Northern paper makes the following statement: Some complaints, and we believe unjust to wear it; they wish, also, to have the further censure, have been made of the conduct of Gen. power to be found in extending a Provincial Tillson as to bis management in regard to the freedmen and his troatment of citizens of Wilkes County, Georgia. Official and other cliable in formation has been received by Gen. Howard, of the Bureau of Freedmen, which expnerates Gen. THASON. This information is to the effect that the most outrageous conduct has followed the withdrawal of the military forces from the county above named, and in other parts of deorgia. The acts complained of were committed by the soms of wealthy and influential families. These go in gangs, and openly declare that no regree chall live good; they must, of necessity, bute the perupon land owned or routed by lammelf, but whall live with some white man, or leave the country. Good men of the State denounce theme sets, him; they have powers which he must respect; but are powerless to prevent them. ## CHARLESTON.

SATURDAY MOUNING, DECEMBER 16, 1865.

THE COUNTRY, generally, has come to a perception of the fact that the President and Congress have come to an issue upon reconstruction, which may test the powers of the NARDIE will conduct Divine Service in this Church, Executive and Legislative departments of the Government.

It will have been noticed that the President, in his Message, places the States lately seceded in the Union, with representatives in attendance, and leaves it only for "you, fellowcitizens of the Senate, and you, fellow-citizens of the House of Representatives, to judge, each of you, for yourselves, of the elections, returns and qualifications of your own members," which, in effect, is this, merely, that members of either House.

It will, also, have been seen that Congress, at the instance of the Republican majority, has ignored all this-have, in the resolution of Mr. STEVENS, in the House denied that CHANES' Regular Line beig HENRY MEANS, will dis there are any members from the second before the Court. The second case involves the States to Congress, or that any persons purconstitutionality of the act of Congress prescrib- porting to be members shall be admitted until Congress shall act upon the subject; and then rolling the wheels of time back to the surrender of Gen. LEE, takes up the work of reconstruction at that point, to fashion it as it

Clearly, as we have said, there are opposite portended. It may be avoided. The consequences must be fearful, and one or the other may back in time, but which can do so, it is lain, S. C., within twesty-four hours after shipment, difficult to say. The President cannot. He has said the States are in the Union, and he cannot let Congress put them out. This he the Doorkeeper of the House without errors, the might do, perhaps, if they were in the Union by any act of his; but they are not. That they are in by the laws and Constitution of the United States, and as the National Executive he cannot let those laws be violated. Nor if their Senators and Representatives be at the doors of Congress, can be permit them to claims against the Estate of the late Mrs. MALY CLYDE, be turned off, except for some one of the causes above stated, which would be equally sufficient to turn off members from the Northern States. There is no receding from his position, therefore, without a violation of the Constitution, even on his own construction of at Office of "Workly Record," No. 18 Hayre-street, it. There can be no compromise. If the principle be true-if the States be in the Union-it is logically conclusive to its consequences, and he can as little permit the State delegations to be delayed or handered as he can permit the States themselves to be

Congress may recede. They cannot be perfeetly certain of success; they will suffer from a contest with the President; they are now the victorious party, and naturally solicit the rewards of victory; some want office; some backbiting, misrepresentations and downright want to get their friends in office; some wish to retain their friends in office; all want the consideration and importance which a knowla perfidious counterfeit and cheat—a disgrace to bumanity—a living making makin The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, of the 11th inst., says that the long agony of the Senatorial caucus upon the Tum.

They have acted with deliberation, upon a full knowledge of the circumstances; they have acted finally-have determined upon the members of the party seem to have been fully committed; they are already in antagonism to the President, from whom the alienation can scarcely be more complete in persistence; they have won the Government, and naturally wish | repeared to give proper references. Government over the South; they apprehend that if the Southern delegations are admitted | [GLNERAL ORDERS, No. 130.] into Congress, they will coalerce with the Democratic party at the North, and put them under; they fear, also, that they will coalesce with disaffected classes at the North, and re-truling on plantations, or dealing in spiritous liquore pudiate the public debt. In every way, the reappearance of the Southern representatives in Congress is repulsive.
